Description

An exceptional opportunity to secure a 12 metre marina berth (L231) in the highly sought after Martha Cove Marina.

This berth offers easy access within a protected harbour, making arrivals and departures effortless in all conditions. It also has permanent dock fenders installed making parking a breeze.

The Martha Cove Marina has a great community of passionate boaties and this berth is conveniently located directly in front of Matha's Table which is a great place for your morning coffee before heading out for a day on the water or a dinner watching the sunset upon your return.

This is a rare opportunity to position yourself in one of the Mornington Peninsula's most desirable marinas.
