Description

If convenience is high on your list, this 13m berth at Hidden Harbour is hard to beat.

Positioned just three spaces from the car park, getting to and from your boat is quick and easy, particularly when you're carrying bags, loading provisions or getting everyone onboard for a day out on the water.

Adding to the great location, Hidden Harbour has all the essentials covered with secure gated access, 24 hour security, water and power and nearby toilet facilities. Also close by is the fuel wharf, Martha Cove Boatyard and Martha's Table restaurant.

Being a freehold berth annual outgoings are approximately $2,500, including council rates and owners corporation fees.

Whether it's a quick afternoon cruise, a day on the bay or a weekend away, having your own berth means the boat is always there ready to go.
